1 Plaintiff's and Defendant's counsel are continuing to work together to determine if 2 early resolution of this case is a possibility. The parties have and are continuing to informally
3 exchange information and Defendant is evaluating a current settlement demand in this 4 matter. Vacation schedules have created a time delay in attempts to resolve this case. The 5 parties agree that this extension of time and no parties will be prejudiced by the brief
6 extension. This extension allows the parties to continue to focus their efforts on case 7 resolution.
